ABOUT TEXAS BOOK FESTIVAL

With a vision to inspire Texans of all ages to love reading, Texas Book Festival connects authors and readers through experiences that celebrate the culture of literacy, ideas, and imagination. Founded in 1995 by former First Lady Laura Bush, Mary Margaret Farabee, and a group of volunteers, the nonprofit Texas Book Festival promotes the joys of reading and writing through its annual Festival Weekend, the Reading Rock Stars Title I elementary school program, the Real Reads Title I middle and high school program, grants to Texas public libraries, and year-round literary programming. The 2025 Texas Book Festival will take place from Nov. 8–9 in downtown Austin in the Texas Capitol and nearby venues and will feature renowned authors participating in panels, book signings, and activities. Thanks to generous donors, sponsors like presenting sponsor H-E-B, and volunteers, the Festival remains free and open to the public. Learn more at texasbookfestival.org.
